

As Fast As, If I Only Knew

If I only knew

Things would turn out like they did, well I'd choose anyone but you

Tell me some good news

Time will tell or so it might just end my innocence of youth

I have never seen a sadder day

If only just my eyes were blue, then I could handle seeing you

If we hadn't come so far

I'd say that one and one make one, but now I know that it takes two

And if I only knew

Things would turn out like they did, well I'd choose anyone but you

Tell me some good news

Time will tell or so it might just end my innocence

Well I don't understand your change of heart

When we're together it's so hot, but then it's cold when we're apart

Never, ever gonna get another chance to be in over our heads and it's sad

Can't you see?

Especially now that you're set on just bringing me down

And if I only knew

Things would turn out like they did, well I'd choose anyone but you

Tell me some good news

Time will tell or so it might just end my innocence

Ever think about the things you said?

Remember when you promised it's not dead?

But then it fell apart and I

I'll just chalk it up to circumstance

Cause I find it hard to dance with my head in my hands and

If I only knew

Things would turn out like they did, well I'd choose anyone but you

Tell me some good news

Time will tell or so it might just end my innocence

And if I only knew (if I only knew)

Things would turn out like they did, well I'd choose anyone but you

Tell me some good news

Time will tell or so it might just end my innocence of youth

Don't end my innocence of youth

No matter what you do

No matter what you do
