

As Fast As, Open Letter To The Damned

You think you're playing your cards right?
You can't believe you've grown so tight?
She's so hard to please
Even down on your knees, you can beg, "Baby, please," but you'll just make a scene
You can give her your time, but she'll turn on a dime
What's your story?
Here's mine, she's got a social disease

Cause that woman's made a fool of me for the last time
I'm no fool
That devil's kept me up all night for the last time
Hallelujah!

And when I look into her eyes
Ice cold and blue as autumn skies
I feel so much regret for what's not happened yet
In fact, step back because she's mine

Open your eyes and avoid the surprise before she fucks with your head and a part of you dies
I know
You'll be feeling my pain and I'll tell you again and again and again and again you better run while you can

Cause that woman's made a fool of me for the last time
I'm no fool
That devil's kept me up all night for the last time
Hallelujah!

Cause that woman's made a fool of me for the last time
I'm no fool
That devil's kept me up all night for the last time
Well, hallelujah!
