

As Fast As, Open Letter To The Damned

You think you're playing your cards right?

You can't believe you've grown so tight?

She's so hard to please

Even down on your knees, you can beg, "Baby, please," but you'll just make a scene

You can give her your time, but she'll turn on a dime

What's your story?

Here's mine, she's got a social disease

Cause that woman's made a fool of me for the last time

I'm no fool

That devil's kept me up all night for the last time

Hallelujah!

And when I look into her eyes

Ice cold and blue as autumn skies

I feel so much regret for what's not happened yet

In fact, step back because she's mine

Open your eyes and avoid the surprise before she fucks with your head and a part of you dies

I know

You'll be feeling my pain and I'll tell you again and again and again and again you better run while you can

Cause that woman's made a fool of me for the last time

I'm no fool

That devil's kept me up all night for the last time

Hallelujah!

Cause that woman's made a fool of me for the last time

I'm no fool

That devil's kept me up all night for the last time

Well, hallelujah!
