

As Fast As, Something Fierce

Something fierce is gathering
Something wicked this way comes
All my fears are coming to a head
And all my dreams are broken

To some degree I understand that the good times had to roll
But you see what's happening to me?
I grab for straws and pay the toll

Cause all we were is nothing
It's hard not to agree
What's mine is yours and what you've got you keep
I guess I didn't see

To hold your own? Impossible
Cause they can do more than you can
To sell your soul? That's incredible
And if you find a buyer I'll be damned

Cause all we were is nothing
It's hard not to agree
What's mine is yours and what you've got you keep
I guess I didn't see

Keep your head up triumphant
Don't get caught gazing at your shoes
Cause even if you win it's gonna be a little bit before you make up all your losses and you cash in y
The odds will say you'll lose

Cause all we were is nothing
It's hard not to agree
What's mine is yours and what you've got you keep
I guess I didn't see
