

As Friends Rust, Temporary Living

Temporary living for a temporary life.

(I thought you knew) Temporary living.

Blanketed in bubble wrap, kept my heart in a doggie bag.

9 to 5 in the portolet, hold my zip-loc dreams while I styrofoam.

Opened up the mail-order wife with a plastic knife and she mp3'd.

She was beautiful, like one of them Real Dolls.

Laid down the terrycloth on the astro-turf.

Set up the paper plates, the inflatable dates, for a rewinded picnic.

Can't keep a love like this just anywhere.

Gotta keep a love like this in tupperware.

It's temporary living for a temporary life.
