

As I Lay Dying, Pain Of Seperation

How can I bear this any longer?
Arms stretched out only to hold separation
Take me away, I'm dying inside
Emptied before you, take me into your arms
I will fight until the day when I will see
Sight given to these blind eyes
When will I be taken from this life
Take what is yours, you deserve more than my life
