

As Tall As Lions, Blowing Out A Wish

Bend, Bend at your knees
Bend so you break
Into a world we lost before
Don't you discover the soul

Know, know that you're old
Know how to act
Act so infared
But don't delay, I always wanted to know

She found another lover
She found another friend
Strange how reactions
Get lost in the end

Wait once, once in awhile
Maybe you'll smile
Maybe you'll show who, who you are
You feed the fire, that burns
Rise, don't try to spin,
Cause it's falling down
Into a flame, cracked
Like before, it's fire
It burns

Just grow old
She found another lover
She found another friend
Strange how reaction
Gets lost in the end

Don't take Jesus
He's courageous
Like the lion
Or the faceless
