

As Tall As Lions, Goodnite, Noises Everywhere

I'm sleeping tonight with all the wolves
And dreaming of life that's better planned
As long as the wind that falls isn't longing for revenge
I should be safe
We should be safe

I'm sleeping tonight with all the wolves
And dreaming of life that's better planned
As long as the wind that falls isn't longing for revenge
I should be safe
We should be safe

Here's to bitter ends
So watch as those friends
Enjoy sins, embrace them

Stories they've told
Through ears on the walls
Speak softly to them all
