

Ascension Theory, Enemies

Put your faith in me friend
I won't lead you wrong
Without me you're nothing
Together we are strong
A hundred battles fought
And this is one more
To lay claim to this world
You'll need to fight a war

The wind is strong
The flames are high
The time is now
The tide shall turn

I can give you weapons
Strategies to win
Killing isn't easy
You need experience
Victory will never
Come at a small price
Freedom comes to those who
Dare to sacrifice

The enemy attacked at dawn
They took us by surprise
No mercy shown as they advanced
No chance to question why
An when the thousandth life had died
We heard an endless cry
Of every act of murder
Amplified in the killer's mind
