

Ascension Theory, Lovers (I'll Wait For You)

If I could see you now
I know I'd see you all alone
With the weight of the world on your heart

If you could hear me now
I'd tell you that the only thing
Worth fighting for is love

And I'll wait for you
As long as the stars shine
Bright in the night
I'll wait for you
Knowing that someday
You'll wake up and see me by your side

If I could touch you now
You'd remember all the love we shared
Between the times we spent apart

If I could hear you now
I'd hear you say you'd give your life
To make everything all right
