

Asgaut, In The Edge Of The Hour

Time is runing against me
Into the silence of the night
It feels like it's fading away
The cold reflection of your sight.

an Angel falling
And I've stood there bleeding
Before the glory
The pain will come.

A sadness image of the face in the mirror
Confusion Thoughts lays deep inside.

A shape of a demon
At the edge of the horror
Your bleeding eyes
That cry in
Why must you die?

I, I'm still left there behind you
Cause you left me alone to beg,

You,
You are far from behind ,With differnt memories and fantasies lost in time.

I'm still left there behind
Cause you left me alone to beg,
You ,You are far from behind

Far from behind.
