

Ash, On A Wave

We spiral, we come in below the horizon
Falling headlong ?? tumbling into the ocean
And a fever ?? gonna let you forget her
Come whatever, a girl i'm used to knowing better

On a wave, never gonna see her again
On a wave, got it right right to the end

Slamming, slamming on door of the ocean
An emotion, butterflies flowing motion

On a wave, never gonna see her again
On a wave, got it right right to the end
On a wave, breaking away
On a wave
Don't care what you're saying

She always swore that
We'd make it whatever
Through any tempest
We'd stick together
She's in my system
She'll stay there forever
Like a fire that's in my heart

On a wave
On a wave

At night I'm floating on misty air
White horses, charging over my head
And all is destined to decay
All is programmed to betray
In your heart and soul it'll stay
Break away on an ocean wave

Devotion, falling to the floor of the ocean
?? ?? ?? ??

Yeah
On a wave, never gonna see her again
On a wave, got it right right to the end
On a wave, breaking away
On a wave

Don't care what you say
I'm leaving today
I'm breaking away on a wave
