

Ash, Warmer Than Fire

Currents that are stronger,
Wanna drag you under.
I would never tire,
Swimming next to you,
W became united,
twisted and enlightened,
Skating on fire,
Yes you know its true.
She took of her t-shirt,
Like a worm I'd eat dirt,
Just to be beside her,
Every single night,
Golf ball hail and thunder,
Rum and Stevie Wonder.
Warmer than fire,
Getting into you.
These memories,
Dear God I hope she's always next to me.
Picking and then peaking,
With the Costa Ricans.
Lying on a surf board,
Four weeks of the year.
She was in her cycle,
Crashed her motorcycle.
Broken toes in plaster,
Stitches in her arm.
These memories,
Dear God I hope she's always next to me.
When we're deceased,
Dear God I hope she's always next to me.
These memories,
Dear God I hope she's always next to me.
When we're deceased,
Dear God I hope she's always next to me
These memories,
Dear God I hope she's always next to me.
When we're deceased,
Dear God I hope she's always next to me
Dear God I hope she's buried next to me.
Dear God I hope she's buried next to me
