

Asha, A Wild Moment

She's so high
it's almost an offence
it's only time
time to turn the page
she's so intense
she could be anything she dreams maybe i'd be in them
i want to be the man i used to be heaven only knows about my destiny but now you're here
just to hear my voice
lose control
i'm back for more
the sun goes down
i don't care where i'm gonna be i'm gonna make you high even if you're begging (ignored)me even if you ignore me)
should i pray
for a perfect day
say goodbye
stay the same
a wild moment
no more peace
a wild moment
it's what i need
to be free
so look at me
if you think you know my truth did you waste my time i hadn't got anything to do i hadn't anything else to do
should i pray
for a perfect day
say goodbye
stay the same
a wild moment
a wild moment
to be free
what's gonna happen?
when you read the note i wrote today
