

Asha, Awake

Where is the pain
where is the love
the king of all the grace
is freeing a new ghost
step over step
down to the shore
trying to find a reason why we&acute;re alone
i&acute;m a new man
my darkness hour
has gone away
the message now has been sent i&acute;m awake
it&acute;s raining again heaven&acute;s turning dark i saw your face with a mark scars from life
far away
nightmares in my eyes
you turned your head
while she said
don&acute;t cross the line
