

Ashanti, Movies

[Verse 1]

Looking in the mirror I can see myself standing in your Arms holding me and kissing me and loving me, oooh
You just can't get enough of me now I'm on the phone telling You I'm all alone so come on over I'm out the shower now, about to oil down I can't wait till you get here.

[Chorus 2x]

I wanna be like those girls in the movies, to have a man so in love it makes him drop to his knees she's even on his mind while he's asleep at night cause that's the feeling you've given me.

[Verse 2]

I'm almost ready to accept the truth I'm in love with you and I wanna tell you I'm glad that you're here, uh and now we're face to face in the candlelight, I'm watching your eyes watching mine layin here with you, feel so good, feel so good.
With your hand in mine we don't have to worry about time, or what the future brings we can just let it be the way you smile At me I already see you don't wanna leave so we can just Sit back, relax and let it move naturally.

[Chorus 4x]

Yeah thats the feeling Baby..Baby
