

Ashanti, Never Should Have

You were all that I wanted
I fell in love with all of your heart and your soul
From that morning couldn't imagine
You went from hurting me you're mistreated in your love
I should have loved

Rivers of tear drops
This short pains in my heart
This was the way that you loved
You never should have loved me

You never should have loved me
You never should have touched me
You never should have
Never should have told me you loved me and you would never leave me.
'Cause everything that you would do
It made me fall in love with you
Until your love and your man my mistake
Now I can't take you back if I want it too

Balled up, laying in my bed
Fortracing through my head
How did we start our love end up here
You said you loved me and I believed you
Seems like you don't even mean what you see.

Rivers of tear drops,
This short pains in my heart
This was the way that you loved
You never should have loved me

You never should have loved me
You never should have touched me
You never should have, never should have told me you loved me and you would never leave me.
'Cause everything that you would do
It made me fall in love with you
Until your love and your man my mistake
Now I can't take you back if I want it too

You were all that I wanted
I fell in love with you 'cause you loved me and I thought that you were ready
I thought that we were gonna be a family
Keep hold my love to give
To someone else

You never should have loved me
You never should have touched me
You never should have
Never should have told me you loved me and you would never leave me.
'Cause everything that you would do
It made me fall in love with you
Until your love and your man my mistake
Now I can't take you back if I want it too
