

Ashanti, Now That I Love You

thought i was in love before never knew that there was more saw the world in black and white until you came into my life suddenly before my eyes theres a rainbow in the sky reaching out and telling me that it's you i need

chorus:

Now that i love you
i know i never never loved anyone before you cause this is so real
now that i found you
i know i could never never live my life without you
now that i love you..

i was taken by surprise all at once i realized how your love completed me and how you are my destiny you've become the air i breathe nothing less than everything your in my heart and in my soul you have made me whole

chorus:

Now that i love you
i know i never never loved anyone before you( i never loved anyone)
i know i could never never live my life without you (never without you )
now that i love you..

never in my life have i been touched this way never been moved to say i want forever with you never have i wanted someone more than you never been closer to my heart and now that i love you..

OoOoOhh.. i love you

chorus:

Now that i love you (now i love you)
now that i found you ( now that i found you baby) i know i could never never live my life without you (never live my life)
now that i love you..

now that i love you (x5)
