

Ashbury Heights, Invisible Man

Ohh!
I'm leaving these streets behind
I'm not gonna say goodbye
No one cares
Ohh!
I was never invisible
I was just always here
No one cares
And the rays of the moon
Shines right through
I'm the invisible man tonight
I'm the invisible man tonight
And the rays of the moon
Shines right through
I'm the invisible man tonight
I'm the invisible man tonight
Ohh!
I'm gonna make my own policy
I'm sick and tired of being told
No one cares
Ohh!
I never had a destiny
Whoever said you needed one?
No one cares
And the rays of the moon
Shines right through
I'm the invisible man tonight
I'm the invisible man tonight
And the rays of the moon
Shines right through
I'm the invisible man tonight
I'm the invisible man tonight
And the rays of the moon
Shines right through
I'm the invisible man tonight
I'm the invisible man tonight
And the rays of the moon
Shines right through
I'm the invisible man tonight
I'm the invisible man tonight
