

Ashbury Heights, Unbearable Beauty

Narcotic smiles
Eyes like mirror glass
Miles and miles
Of closest skeletons
You instill
Heartfelt melodies
Up this hill
There's no mercy
If only you could see yourself
Through my own eyes
Then maybe you could see the you
That I desire
Your unbearable beauty
Your unbearable charm
Your unbearable smile
That lingers for a while
How you feel
Is a mystery
Spin the wheel
It's all good
An endless dance
Round and round again
And every chance
A drop of rain
If only you could see yourself
Through my own eyes
Then maybe you could see the you
That i desire
Your unbearable beauty
Your unbearable charm
Your unbearable smile
That lingers for a while
