

Ashe, Love Is Not Enough

I'm not trying to break the silence
Baby I'm just trying to fix it
I been tryna show you the difference

You can slam the door tell me that I'm like my mother
You don't need to tell me your sorry
We don't need to talk till you're ready

It takes a lot more than a rose
More than a kiss
More than a heart

Cause
Love is not enough
But at least we got that much
Baby, lay your head down
You can sleep at my house

Cause
Love is not enough
But at least we got your touch
The mifddl of the long night
We don't need it all right now
No!
