

Asher, Miles To Go

I know you're no good
I know you're no good
For me
But I can't help my heart beating out this chest
When I see you there
Why'd you'd think I'd make the excuses
To make words, name my bruises
I'm so over the headaches
Making love songs and sextapes
Let's just cut the illusion
Cause in this game we're both losing
And I know you don't want this
We, still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
We, still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
We, still got
I know you're no good
I know you're no good
For me
But I can't help my heart beating out this chest
When I see you there
Why'd you'd think I'd make the excuses
To make words, name my bruises
I'm so over the headaches
Making love songs and sextapes
Let's just cut the illusion
Cause in this game we're both losing
And I know you don't want this
We, still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
We, still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
It take so long to get back home
Cause I know we're gonna fight
It's cause the way that
I know that the love is gone
Why'd you'd think I'd make the excuses
To make words, name my bruises
I'm so over the headaches
Still got miles to go
Still got miles to go
