

ASHES dIVIDE, A wish

I...

Could've been...

The man you see in front of you all...

But he...

Slipped away...

To put this pride in to a place of hiding.

From everyone...

I...

Suffer through...

And push away anyone in love with me, I...

Wish

I could have...

The pretty things you see in me

Underneath.

I've slipped away...

?? feel important to me in the day...

I wish...

I could have...

The pretty things inside of you, understood by anything.
