

Ashlee Simpson, Bat For a Heart

I'm gonna bang bang, fu* you up
Twist you out inside of my head
I'm gonna bang bang, fu* you up
Twist you out inside of my head

I'm out of my mind running towards danger
The lights on the street are blinding my way
I can feel you, watching over
I know you want it now, want it now, want it now
I know you want it now, want it now, want it now

I'm gonna bang bang, fu* you up
Twist you out inside of my head
I'm gonna bang bang, fu* you up
Twist you out inside of my head

The dark in the sky, the wind in my air
A bat for a heart sucking up me
Can you feel me, watching over
I know you want it now, want it now, want it now
I know you want it now, want it now, want it now

I'm gonna bang bang, fu* you up
Twist you out inside of my head
I'm gonna bang bang, fu* you up
Twist you out inside of my head
/2x

My hands are stained from my dirty black hair
My heart is cursed cause you were never there
Another crime that you left behind
Im just a name that fear of the time

I'm gonna bang bang, fu* you up
Twist you out inside of my head
I'm gonna bang bang, fu* you up
Twist you out inside of my head
