

Ashlee Simpson, I Am Me

What's she got that I don't have
Does she fill those spaces that I left you
When you wake up everynight
Does the scent of regret ever haunt you

Put this under your skin
I am me and I won't change for anyone
Me and I won't change for anyone
For anyone like you

Does the weight of consequence
Drag you down until it pulls you under
Does she lend an eager hand to save you
From the future of being with her
Are you with her?

Put this under her skin
I am me and I won't change for anyone
Me and I won't change for anyone
For anyone like you

Why would I, Why would I change
Why would I change
Put this under your skin
