Because I Love You
I came to you with open arms
Hoping you'd feel the same
But you didn't even look twice at me
Because you fell in love with her

Ohh and maybe if I had one single wish
Ohh Ohh it would be for you to be with me

Because I love you
Like no one I've ever loved before
And I need you
To say you love me more
Than anyone you've ever known at all
And for this I wish come true
Because I love you

I know you say we're the best of friends
And that's good but I want more
'Cause baby if you knew the way I felt
Maybe I'd be your's

Ohh but it's not easy saying those words to you
Ohh Ohh 'cause your in love with someone else

Because I love you
Like no one I've ever loved before
And I need you
To say you love me more
Than anyone you've ever known at all
And for this I wish come true
Because I love you

I know I can be the one to make you happy
But I don't get a chance
'Cause you can't help the way you feel about her
And maybe this is the end but baby oh

Because I love you
Like no one I've ever loved before
And I need you
To say you love me more
Than anyone you've ever known at all
And for this I wish come true
Because I love you
