

Ashley Monroe, Satisfied

I want him but he don't want me
He wants somebody else that I cant be
And she's got a man that she wants to leave
Cause he cant seem to make her happy
Does it have to be wrong to make it feel right
Tell me why ain't nobody satisfied
Old man looking at a photograph of a love
That's long gone from his past
And his wife's gotta letter that she cant read
From a boy who never came back from the sea
All the secret of lives that we keep deep inside
Does it have to be wrong to make it feel right
Tell me why ain't nobody satisfied

See that man walking down the street
Yeah what are the odds he's the one for me
And what if I pass him by and
He's got the love i need
Tell me why ain't nobody satisfied
I want him but he don't want me
He wants somebody else that I cant be
And she's got a man that she wants to leave
Cause he cant seem to make her happy
See that man walking down the street
Yeah what are the odds he's the one for me
What if I pass him by and he's got the love I need
