Your Everything

I am everything that you want me to be!
Please tell me baby can I have a life for me?!
Because everything you want me to be is not what I want to be!
You have to try to understand that this is the best for me!

Chorus:

You may think you know but you don't.
I know what's best for me and baby you don't.
You can't tell me what I will and what I won't!
Because baby you may think you know but you don't.

Now listen here.
I am only gonna say this once!
You can't control baby
And you don't own me baby
You can think you will
You can hope
You can dream
But I won't be your everything!

Chorus

You don't know anything about me
Cause I've been so caught up
In being your everything
You can't tell me what to be
Or what to do
Cause baby I am through with you
Through with you
Cause baby I am through with you!!!!
