

Ashley Tisdale, Time's Up

Yeah,yeah
I played the song
Now it drives me crazy
I've run the race
Now I do damn lazy
This love of ours
Is so sad it makes me
Laugh today,
Seems a little different
Hard to say
But it looks like the end
Times up
Promise this time I get enough
Better we slam the door shut
Didnt you know
If nothing changes, nothing changes
Times up
Promise this time I get enough
Better we turn the lights off,
Love is a train
We wait for it
Even when its gone
Weve surfed the wave,
Now weve hit the shore and
Weve squeezed the fruit
Till theres no more juice left
Were both so good
Gotta keeping up the life, we can
Get an inperspective
Kiss my lips
Life is what we make it
Times up
Promise this time I get enough
Better we slam the door shut
Didnt you know
If nothing changes, nothing changes
Times up
Promise this time I get enough
Better we turn the lights off,
Love is a train
We wait for it
Even when its gone
As Im waving you goodbye,
I want you to smile
Save a picture in your frame
Put it right next to my name
I don;t really look dead
But love willin to trap
But not willin to lie for love
I know
That this cakes already baked
Now it;s burnin, burnin
We can get an in perspective
Kiss my lips
Times up
Better we turn the lights off,

We wait for it
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Even when its gone
Even when its gone
Times up
Better we turn the lights off,
