

Ashley Tisdale, What If

Don't let go don't give up there's always time for you and me to make things better than what you said
What if you would set me free would save em' from myself? would you love me forever? or would th
I move on this ashes in the road are gone is everything in the past yes I know our love was strong
What if you would set me free would save me from myself? would you love me forever? or would th
Baby we don't know all the answers of the life baby you think that you're the one but let me tell you
What if you would set me free would save em' from myself? would you love me forever? or would th
Don't let go don't give up. that words are gone.
