

Ashley Wallbridge and Andy Moor, Faces

Face a sky
Face a wind that blows to me
Face a world
Face a life's reality
Face a dream
Face a time that goes too haste
Face a clock
Never let this run to waste
Face to me
Never look behind to past
Face a hope..
Face a thing that could now last..
Many faces gone to places
Sun is blinding, world defining
Face the light
For me to see your eyes..
Face the world..
Face the star
Face a world without a war
Face the pain
Face the pressure and the strain
Face the case
Face the leaders of this place
So face the gun
Face a world but never run..
Face the year..
Face the future..
Face the fear..fear..fear
Many faces gone to places
Sun is blinding, world defining
Face the light
For me to see your eyes..
Many faces gone to places
Sun is blinding, world defining
Face the light
For me to see your eyes..
