

Asia, Ghost In The Mirror

(Payne/Downes/Sherwood)

I've been hearing voices
Voices in my head
Can't escape the noises
Lying in my bed

The winter nights grow colder
The darkness falls too soon
I will hide till morning
How silent is this moon?

Just one look and I will find
Someone else on the other side
A trick of light or the darker mind
Ghost in the mirror

And as the dawn is waking
The shadows burn away
The sun reborn the savior
The safety of the day

Just one look and I will find
Someone else on the other side
A trick of light or the darker mind
Ghost in the mirror

The darkness calls me
The shadows fool me
Is it safe on the other side?
Is this my future?
If it's a dream why can't I wake?

Just one look and I will find
Someone else on the other side
A trick of light or the darker mind
Ghost in the mirror
