

Asia, Lying To Yourself

You tell me lies that you believe, you say it's the real thing
I can see how you've deceived, I know what's happening
And seeing is believing till you find out that you're blind

You're Lying To Yourself, Lying To Yourself
You're Lying To Yourself, Lying To Yourself

Wake up shake up turn around, I'll give it to you straight
It's been too long it's past a joke, something I can't take
The cost is due now tell me money ain't the means

You're Lying To Yourself, Lying To Yourself

Lying To Yourself again, you're Lying To Yourself again

Lying in the morning I'll kiss you goodbye
You won't regret a part of this and neither will I
Revealing hearts with a common need play their hands
