

Asian Dub Foundation, Tommorow Begins Today

I know of a place not so far away where no government holds sway where no Prime Minister will be given the time of day where every person demands to have a say and they say tommorow begins today they say tommorow begins today so i know i must find a way i'm leaving, leaving today to where no fences may bar my way where my imagination can be lead a stray
they say tommorow begins today
