

AsineD, It's never too late

It's never too late
to make your dreams come true...
... to make your dreams come true...

The reality sometimes isn't amazing.
Havin' a little seed of dream
you can change your life.

You can believe
unreal dreams can come true.
Remember, in the night
the stars in the sky
belongs

To all people
and fallin' stars means
FULLFILMENT

It's never too late
to make your dreams come true.
Every day it's time for one step,
so never and never give up !
Let's go and reach your goal
and say in five words:
"My dreams are comin' true"

The are many obstacles in life.
The are two ways to choose.
Havin' a little seed of dream
discover a better side od life.

You can believe
unreal dreams can come true.
Remember, in the night
the stars in the sky
belongs

To all people
and fallin' stars means
FULLFILMENT

It's never too late
to make your dreams come true.
Every day it's time for one step,
so never and never give up !
Let's go and reach your goal
