

Asking Alexandria, Let Go

I'm finding the truth
Between the lies that you use
To hold me down and abuse
Try to control me
I never wanted anything more
I never wanted to start a war
I search for the meaning
The scars and the bleeding that you left behind
I'm hopelessly hopeful that I'm finding my way Without the faith that you took me from me

Let go let go
Give a little bit
Oh no oh no
I think I'm over it
Sleepless thoughts at night
Am I dreaming?

cinch around my neck till the memories start to fade away like secondhand smoke from the fire that we became I'm counting every breath but I've got nothing left these broken hands of time won't wind (cause all these) voices in my head
(are) praying that my death will find a way to bring me back to life

Let go let go
Give a little bit
Oh no oh no
I think I'm over it
Sleepless thoughts at night
Am I dreaming?
Let go let go
Give a little bit
Oh no oh no
I think I'm over it
You gotta let me know
Am I dreaming?

I can hardly breath
And I can hardly see
I can't forget you
I can't forget you
X4

Let go let go
Give a little bit
Oh no oh no
I think I'm over it
Sleepless thoughts at night
Am I dreaming?
Let go let go
Give a little bit
Oh no oh no
I think I'm over it
You gotta let me know
Am I dreaming?
