

Asobi Seksu, New Years

candy says

English:

When we were little,
recall.
Gently open those eyes,
nostalgic, you can see the two of us.

Candy says

You didn't forget
even the little memories.
From the depths of our hearts,
we created yesterday's memories.

I cried out in empty loneliness
but you disappear all the same.
Even so I chase after you,
on and on,
after the memories.
