

Asphyx, Frozen Soul

a soul made of ice
and the invention of fire didn't melt my heart
it got even colder my soul remains frozen as it has been for a thousand years

no feelings at all
you know I got no feelings at all frozen soul

at the beginning of time i was born
into a family of conquerors destined to do death stonecold obsession for the destruction of life

you know that i'm the son of man you made me to what I am the fear of me is a product of your past forever, that's how long I'll last

frozen soul

I exist-by the grace of your coldness by the grace of a breed of rats by the grace of a god who failed by the grace of the one you hail

i got even colder

frozen soul
