

Ass Ponys, No Dope No Cigarettes

on the news today they ran her picture twice they found her in a shallow stream half frozen in the ice you listen to the rain from your room all day it continues raining it will wash it all away

no dope, no cigarettes to keep the devil down you know you won't forget the things that haunt you now no drug that you can get will wipe it all away no dope no cigarettes today in your bed at night trapped between the sheets you hear the monster coming as you try to go to sleep and when you close your eyes and you're playing dead you see the ones who say they love you circle overhead
