

Ass Ponys, Nothing Stars Today

I know damn well the weeds are growing
In the yard
I realize that it need mowing
But it's too hard

No matter what they say
Nothing starts today

Last week your cyber girl went missing
From her room
Befriending her's a lot like pissing
At the moon

You're drowning either way

But nothing starts today

I'd like to write about the color
Of her hair
But every time I try to find it
It isn't there

I'm always pressing play
But nothing starts today
You're drowning either way
But nothing starts today
Nothing starts today
