

Assorted Jellybeans, In Our Eyes

now it's time and i don't know if i like it, maybe so my eyes play tricks on me happiness is in my mind boy i'm feeling oh so fine feels like i'm in a dream sometimes it makes mean words don't matter much cause we're not quite in touch we sure do know what they mean it's never the same old thing
looks like we meet again now it's time and i don't know if i like it, i think so
boy we're feeling oh so fine
everything is turning green
my eyes play tricks on me.
