

ASTN, Be So Cruel

I got a new girl and she fine too
And she spicy just the way I like my Thai food
She so wavy like a typhoon
For a minute I forgot all about you
Till I saw you out with your new dude
Thought I would be cool but it's too soon
Lovin' him like you use to do me

I'm losing my cool
That's supposed to be me touching you
You done went and broke the fucking rules
And I know I messed it up doesn't mean you have to treat me so cruel
Don't treat me so cruel

Never thought I'd be the jealous type dude
Till you went and found somebody else in my shoes
You think you're happy oh baby that's cute
But you ain't even introduce your friends to him
And I talked to your girlfriend Nikki she says that you're moving too quickly
All over him like you're over me

I'm losing my cool
That's supposed to be me touching you
You done went and broke the fucking rules
And I know I messed it up doesn't mean you have to treat me so cruel
Oh baby you
How you got me out here feelin' used
Don't show him those things that I taught you
And I hope this breaks your love
I'm not crazy but I might be for you
Don't treat me so cruel
So cruel, don't treat me so cruel
So cruel, don't treat me so cruel
So cruel, don't treat me so cruel
So cruel, don't treat me so cruel
