

Astrid Van Der Veen, Bleed

I hope one day the earth will explode
All people dead, all pain blown away
Every single soul burned of the heat
Even mine, lost within

I hope one day I will lose my hate
'Cause it's draggin' me down, to nowhere
It's killing every little hope that is left
To be free, one day

I hope everyone will suffer and feel the hate
Dying of pain and losing their blood
It's the only future I see for us
And I'm not negative

We will bleed

Innocent people do not exist, oh no
Everyone is guilty, including myself
We killed our mother, our precious mother
Now she will take us

I hope someday it will come this far
Mother has given' given' given' givin'
Now she's takin' takin' takin' takin'
I can't blame her

We will bleed
