

Astrid Van Der Veen, Soulmaster

Right now I'm lost in my weakness
In my selfish handmade pain
No way I'll let it go now
I've tried before, I've learned I can't

Weakly I destroy my hope
Turning it into fear
I can't help myself
Like someone is taking over control

Soulmaster is hurting me
Is murdering me
I guess I deserved it

I've created myself for him
I guess he doesn't like what he sees
Have to obey him, follow him
So tell me what to do, and I'll do

Soulmaster is hurting me
Is murdering me
I guess I deserved it

Soulmaster is hurting me
Is murdering me
I guess I deserved it
Oh
