

Astronautalis, Meet Me Here Later

Baptised in soft skin with bitten lips I passed by her lost in the sketchy land Lines of breadcrumbs retrace for the ride Bathed in the blue light of perfect american nights american nights funny right lovely night song sets pace young lovers sing along through touch face true love waits in shallow waters under darkened skys little handcuffs and the solid plans and blacked out eyes we're killing cowboys left and right again with guilty little trips, recycled cans that give me whiskey lips and dirty hands and everybodys got a ribbon all of a sudden and its a box newsstand alright

sorry adamn she based all her plans lets call those supermodels and all of thier fucking vagrant bands and ask them just exactly what they've got planned to save us from our own impending doom hey word, baptised, soft skin, bitten smiles, bitten smiles all lost in oh god how you glow, oh god how you glow meet me here later and we'll make out hey word, broke bones, paint chips bitten smiles, bitten smiles and soft hits oh lord how you shine, oh how you shine

"you ready?"
"yeah i'm ready"
"ok, then let's go"

"1... 2... 3..."

last one held in the mouth hed down third street keg in the backseat go home makeout and bleed

mr. mouthful he opens pockets it's just a buck when nothing costs me
nothing costs me
nothing costs me

assholes all obsessed with spelling sweating, out of breath from yelling fuck you bleeding heart take another 20 all we need here is to burn some money check, swore i'd laugh at anything word, baptised, with bitten smiles, bitten smiles all lost in

hey word, broke bones and paint chips

oh lord how you shine ooh how you shine

oh lord how you shine oh lord how you shine
