

Astrud Gilberto, Where Have You Been

I've been thinking
I've been wondering
I've been wondering
where have you been I've been sad, Love
I'm so lost, Love
I've been crying
Where have you been?
Every sound I hear
I think you re near I think it's you at the door but it wasn't you and I go back to my sad waiting
I've been thinking
I've been wondering
doesn't matter
where you have been Whereever you are
come running to me Come back, oh please
come back
I've been thinking
I've been wondering
doesn't matter
where you have been Whereever you are
come running to me
Come back, oh please
come back
Come back, oh please
come back
