

Atargatis, Fever Of Temptation

A whispering eternal, a feather in the winds
Dreaming of tomorrow, to bind your heart
Fever of temptation, a soft sigh in the winds
Dreaming of tomorrow, to find you heart
What you've got you'll never let go
Obsessively bind all to you
No emotion in your life
No living soul inside
What you've said you'll never take back
Hey, are you still breathing?
No emotion in your life
No living soul inside
And then temptation fell into your life
All repressed feelings
Burn to come upside
Burn! Burn! Burn!
Burn to feel alive
Hey, what d' you think
You have achieved in the moment
Your innermost is burning, there's fire inside
Never lose control, temptations all around you
Your innermost is burning, there's fire inside
Never lose control
Your innermost is burning
The wind blows away all the ashes of your soul
Your innermost is burning, there's fire inside
A spark heats the blaze flaming in your breeze
Your innermost is burning, there's fire inside
