Atargatis, When The Ice Breaks

Don't feel too safe, but don't hesitate Ice breaks you if you walk too fast Although you followed the right way And have been so cautious Sometimes all seems to be so secure Oh but the ice breaks You've ever felt so safe In the warmth around you But when the ice breaks The ice breaks The ice breaks You think that you stand on secure ground Confirmed it in a million times But the ground below your life Is made of oh so breakable ice Underneath your feet Underneath your life You have never done anything wrong Oh but the ice breaks You have never thought It would happen to you But soon the ice breaks