

Ataris, Carnage

You came clearer than ever before
You did what no one else can
Just never follow up when I'm away
Because I'd hurt you. You'd hurt me too.
You are a dream. This is the longest time I've been with someone
There's no explaining, and no escaping
You are for real and nothing will ever come between us
No need to look to deep
I'll just never go to sleep
I felt your body as I remember
Put me to shame when I was through
I put you down inside myself
But you manage to do it. You always do
You are a dream. This is the longest time I've been with someone
There's no explaining, and no escaping
You are for real and nothing will ever come between us
No need to look to deep
I'll just never go to sleep

Did you know you missed the point of dreaming
When you said you needed more and more and ended up with less
This time I have you with me
I pulled you out when I got up
I beat your pretty face and I will make this one real
You are a dream. This is the longest time I've been with someone
There's no explaining, and no escaping
You are for real and nothing will ever come between us
No need to look to deep
I'll just never go to sleep
Everything wet; pillows with tears
Sheets with sweat.
I'm tired
Do it when I'm here
