Ataris

Look Forward To Failure

Not A Worry In The World

Do you remember all the things we did?

And what it's like to be a kid.

Being young and skipping school,

I guess we must have broken every rule!

I never thought those times would last forever,

But now that they're gone

I'm pretty sure we grew up to fast.

I've had my wishes on a star

I hope that yours came true.

Now all I've got is a memory of you.

Not a worry in.. ... the world!

I remember when you moved away,

You promised me that you'd be back one day,

But times have changed and so have I,

It sucks that friendships end

With a goodbye.

I never thought that friendships last forever.

But now that you're gone

I'm pretty sure we end up all the same.

Still I won't say goodbye.

Won't ever say goodbye.

And know that I'll always be your friend.

[Repeat Chorus]
